

CANDIDATE INTERVIEWS

Follow these steps to hire the BEST ...

Put the candidate at ease. Since interviewing is stressful, do your best to help the candidate relax. Offer them water and introduce yourself; share your story of success at Discount Tire.

Next tell them briefly about the position, responsibilities, challenges, and performance criteria.

DO ask open-ended questions that require/allow the applicant to reply in complete sentences. Take notes to help you remember each applicant.

- Notes MUST be separate from the job application or resume and never indicate applicant's race, age, national origin, gender, disability or other such identifier, either outright or by code (can be discriminatory and illegal).
- Ask each candidate interviewing for the same position the same group of interview questions.
- Always have more than one person interview each candidate.

DO NOT use questions that solicit responses pertaining to any of the following categories: race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, physical/mental disability, veteran status or any other category protected by federal, state, or local laws.
