

Working With Online Customers

This process will help you determine the type of online customer you are working with, the actions needed for the product they ordered, and the type of services the customer should receive when they come in to have their product installed.

Remember: It is critical to communicate with your customer throughout the entire process to ensure we are meeting their expectations and keeping them well informed.

