

Aged Tire Inventory Reduction – FAQ

Q What is the general process to sell aged tire inventory on eBay?

A Store – Determines if tires meet the criteria to be sold in eBay and notify Regional Adjustment Warehouse for pick up

A eBay Team – Lists and sells tires on eBay

A Regional Adjustment Warehouse – Picks up, stores, and ships tires to customer

Q What are the criteria to determine if tires are eligible to sell on eBay?

A Date on Tire (DOT) 4-6 years old, but not over 6 years old

A No damage or visible run on tire

A Tire is not an “A moving article”

A Store Managers discretion if tires are eligible

Q What do I do with tires that are over six years old?

A Follow current Best Practices in place and drill tire

Q How often should aged inventory be checked?

A After initial inventory check for aged inventory, follow normal inventory calendar: KC > Store Operations > Inventory > Physical Inventory

Q Who does the store contact if they have any questions or issues about the process?

A Contact: aged_ebay@discounttire.com

Q Who does the Regional Adjustment Warehouse contact if they have any questions or issues about the process?

A Contact: aged_ebay@discounttire.com

Q Who does the customer contact if there are issues or the tires need to be returned with the tires they received?

A Contact: aged_ebay@discounttire.com
